ORDER

New Delhi, the 16th March 1960

G.S.R. 345.—In exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (1) of section 4 of the Inter-State Corporations Act, 1957 (38 of 1957), the Central Government, after consulting the Governments of the States of Madhya Pradesh and Bombay, approves the scheme forwarded by the Government of Bombay relating to the reconstitution and reorganisation of the Madhya Pradesh Bhudan Yagna Board, a corporation established under the Madhya Pradesh Bhudan Yagna Act, 1953 (Madhya Pradesh Act No. XV of 1953) and now functioning in parts of the States of Madhya Pradesh and Bombay, and for the purpose of giving effect to the said scheme, the Central Government hereby makes the following Order, namely:—

1. Short title.—This Order may be called the Madhya Pradesh Bhudan Yagna Board (Reconstitution) Order, 1960.

2. Definitions.—(1) In this Order, unless the context otherwise requires,—

- (a) "Act" means the Madhya Pradesh Bhudan Yagna Act, 1953 (Madhya Pradesh Act No. XV of 1953);
- (b) "appointed day" means the 1st day of April, 1960;
- (c) "existing Board" means the Madhya Pradesh Bhudan Yagna Board established under the Act and functioning and operating immediately before the appointed day in the areas of the former State of Madhya Pradesh;
- (d) "Mahakoshal region" or "Mahakoshal region of the State of Madhya Pradesh" means the territories which immediately before the 1st November, 1956 were comprised in the State of Madhya Pradesh, excluding the Vidarbha region;
- (e) "new Board" means the Board established under the Act, as from the appointed day, for the Vidarbha region;

- (f) "Vidarbha region" or "Vidarbha region of the State of Bombay" means the territories comprising the districts of Buldana, Akola, Amravati, Yeotmal, Wardha, Nagpur, Bhandara and Chanda transferred to the State of Bombay under clause (c) of sub-section (1) of section 8 of the States Re-Organisation Act, 1956 (37 of 1956).

(2) Words and expressions used, but not defined, in this Order shall have the meanings respectively assigned to them in the Act.

3. Exclusion of certain areas from the operation of the existing Board and creation of new Board for Vidarbha region.—As from the appointed day,—

- (a) the existing Board shall cease to function and operate in the Vidarbha region of the State of Bombay and shall be deemed to have been established for the Mohakoshal region of the State of Madhya Pradesh;
- (b) a new Board shall be established for the Vidarbha region.

4. Transfer of assets and apportionment of fund of existing Board.—(1) Subject to the other provisions of this Order, all land and all stores, articles and other goods belonging to the existing Board shall, as from the appointed day,—

- (a) if situated within the Vidarbha region, pass to the new Board; and
- (b) in any other case, continue to vest in the existing Board.

Explanation.—In this sub-paragraph, the expression "land" includes immovable property of every kind and any rights in or over such property.

(2) The balance standing to the credit of the Fund of the existing Board on the appointed day, shall be apportioned between the existing Board and the new Board in such proportion as may be agreed upon by the State Governments of Madhya Pradesh and Bombay, or, failing such agreement, in such proportion as may be decided by the Central Government.

5. Contracts.—Where, before the appointed day, the existing Board has made any contract, the contract shall be deemed to have been made—

- (a) if the purposes of the contract are, as from the appointed day, exclusively relatable to the Vidarbha region, by the new Board;
- (b) in any other case, by the existing Board; and all rights and liabilities which have accrued, or may accrue, under any such contract shall, to the extent to which they would have been rights or liabilities of the existing Board, be rights or liabilities of the new Board or, the existing Board, as the case may be.

6. Residuary provision.—The benefit or burden of any assets or liabilities of the existing Board not dealt with under any other provisions of this Order shall,—

- (a) if the assets are situate, or the liability arises, in the Vidarbha region, pass to the new Board;
- (b) in any other case, continue to be the benefit or burden of the existing Board:

Provided that the initial allocation of the benefit or burden under this paragraph shall be subject to such financial adjustment as may be agreed upon by the State Governments of Madhya Pradesh and Bombay, or, in default of such agreement, as the Central Government may direct.

7. Legal Proceedings.—Where immediately before the appointed day, the existing Board is a party to any legal proceedings with respect to any property, rights or liabilities transferred to the new Board the new Board shall be deemed to be substituted for the existing Board as a party to the proceedings, or added as a party thereto, as the case may be, and the proceedings continued accordingly.

8. Provisions relating to employees of existing Board.—(1) Every employee of the existing Board who, immediately before the appointed day, is serving exclusively in connection with the affairs of the existing Board relating to the Vidarbha region shall, as from the appointed day, be deemed to have been allotted to serve in connection with the affairs of the new Board.

(2) Nothing in this paragraph shall be deemed to affect the right of the new Board to determine after the appointed day the conditions of service of persons allotted to it under sub-paragraph (1):

Provided that the conditions of service applicable immediately before the appointed day to any such person shall not be varied to his disadvantage except with the previous approval of the Central Government.

9. Adaptations and modifications of the Act.—As from the appointed day, the Act shall, until altered, repealed or amended by the competent Legislature of the State have effect subject to the provisions of this Order and the adaptations and modifications directed by the Schedule hereto annexed.

New Delhi, the 14th March 1960

G.S.R. 346.—In exercise of the powers conferred by the proviso to article 309 and clause (5) of article 148, of the Constitution, the President after consultation with the Comptroller and Auditor General of India in relation to persons serving in the Indian Audit and Accounts Department, hereby directs that the following further amendment shall be made in the Civil Service Regulations, namely:—

In the said Regulations, for clause (b) of Article 193, the following shall be substituted, namely:—

“(b)(1) When a Government servant who has been dismissed, removed, or suspended is re-instated, the authority competent to order the re-instatement shall consider and make a specific order:—

(a) Regarding the pay and allowances to be paid to the Government servant for the period of his absence from duty; and

(b) Whether or not the said period shall be treated as a period spent on duty.

(2) Where the authority mentioned in sub-rule (1) is of opinion that the Government servant has been fully exonerated or, in the case of suspension, that it was wholly unjustified, the Government servant shall be given the full pay and allowances to which he would have been entitled had he not been dismissed, removed or suspended, as the case may be.

(3) In other cases, the Government servant shall be given such proportion of such pay and allowances as such competent authority may prescribe;

Provided that the payment of allowances under clause (2) or clause (3) shall be subject to all other conditions under which such allowances are admissible.

Provided further that such proportion of such pay and allowances shall not be less than the subsistence and other allowance admissible under Article 193(a).

(4) In a case falling under clause (2) the period of absence from duty shall be treated as a period spent on duty for all purposes.

(5) In a case falling under clause (3) the period of absence from duty shall not be treated as a period spent on duty, unless such competent authority specifically directs that it shall be so treated for any specified purpose:—

Provided that if the Government servant so desires, such authority may direct that the period of absence from duty shall be converted into leave of any kind due and admissible to the Government servant."

ORDER

New Delhi, the 21st March 1960

G.S.R. 353.—In exercise of the powers conferred by sections 3, 4 and 5 read with section 16, of the Essential Commodities Act, 1955 (10 of 1955), as in force in India, and as applied to the State of Pondicherry in the notification of the Government of India, Ministry of External Affairs, No. S.R.O. 215/63-GP/56, dated the 24th January, 1955, the Central Government hereby makes the following amendments to the Colliery Control Order, 1945, namely:—

In the said Order—

1. in clause 2—

- (a) for sub-clause (1), the following sub-clause shall be substituted, namely:—

“(1) ‘coal’ includes anthracite, bituminous coal, lignite, peat and any other form of carbonaceous matter sold or marketed as coal and also coke;”;

- (b) in sub-clause (2), before the word “includes”, the word “and” shall be inserted; and for the words “and a coal washery”, the words “or for the washing of coal” shall be substituted;

- (c) in sub-clause (4), for the words and figures “Indian Mines Act, 1923”, the words and figures “Mines Act, 1952” shall be substituted;

2. for clause 3, the following clause shall be substituted, namely:—

“3. The Central Government may for the purposes of this Order prescribe the classes, grades or sizes into which coal may be categorised and the specifications for each such class, grade or size of coal.”;

3. in clause 4, for the words “grades of coal and coke”, the words “classes, grades and sizes of coal” shall be substituted;

4. for clauses 5 and 6, the following clauses shall be substituted, namely:—

“5. (1) No colliery owner and no person acting on his behalf shall sell, agree to sell or offer to sell, nor shall any person or his agent purchase, agree to purchase or offer to purchase, coal from a colliery owner, direct or through a middleman, whether employed as a broker or as a del credere agent, at a price different from the price fixed under clause 4; and save as hereinafter provided in clause 6, no person shall, while purporting to sell or purchase at a price not different from the price fixed under clause 4, grant or agree to grant or accept or agree to accept any commission, rebate or any other concession, which will have the effect of reducing or increasing, either directly or indirectly, the price so fixed.

(2) Where a colliery owner has, whether by himself or by another, entered into an agreement for the sale of coal at a price different from the price fixed under clause 4, no coal shall be delivered or received in pursuance thereof, unless the agreement is by mutual consent so revised as to bring the price into conformity with the price fixed under clause 4.

6. (1) Where a colliery owner sells coal through a middleman employed by him as a broker, such middleman shall not, in respect of such transaction, charge or receive from the colliery owner a commission exceeding thirty-seven naye paise per ton or per tonne.

(2) Where a consumer purchases coal through a middleman who acts as a del credere agent, such middleman shall not, in respect of such transaction, charge or receive from the consumer a commission over the price fixed under clause 4, which exceeds—

- (a) one rupee per ton or ninety-eight naye paise per tonne in the case of coal; or
